(a) There is hereby created an Office of Price Administration, which shall be under the direction of a Price Administrator (referred to in this Act as the "Administrator"). The Administrator shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall receive compensation at the rate of $12,000 per annum. The Administrator may, subject to the civil-service laws, appoint such employees as he deems necessary in order to carry out his functions and duties under this Act, and shall fix their compensation in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923, as amended (Title 5, §§ 661–673, 674). The Administrator may utilize the services of Federal, State, and local agencies and may utilize and establish such regional, local, or other agencies, and utilize such voluntary and uncompensated services, as may from time to time be needed. Attorneys appointed under this section may appear for and represent the Administrator in any case in any court. In the appointment, selection, classification, and promotion of officers and employees of the Office of Price Administration, no political test or qualification shall be permitted or given consideration, but all such appointments and promotions shall be given and made on the basis of merit and efficiency.

(b) The principal office of the Administrator shall be in the District of Columbia, but he or any duly authorized representative may exercise any or all of his powers in any place. The President is authorized to transfer any of the powers and functions conferred by this Act upon the Office of Price Administration with respect to a particular commodity or commodities to any other department or agency of the Government having other functions relating to such commodity or commodities, and to transfer to the Office of Price Administration any of the powers and functions relating to priorities or rationing conferred by law upon any other department or agency of the Government with respect to any particular commodity or commodities; but, notwithstanding any provision of this or any other law, no powers or functions conferred by law upon the Secretary of Agriculture shall be transferred to the Office of Price Administration or to the Administrator, and no powers or functions conferred by law upon any other department or agency of the Government with respect to any agricultural commodity, except powers and functions relating to priorities or rationing, shall be so transferred.

(c) The Administrator shall have authority to make such expenditures (including expenditures for personal services and rent at the seat of government and elsewhere; for lawbooks and books of reference; and for paper, printing, and binding) as he may deem necessary for the administration and enforcement of this Act. The provisions of section 3709 of the Revised Statutes (Title 41, § 5) shall not apply to the purchase of supplies and services by the Administrator where the aggregate amount involved does not exceed $250.

(d) The Administrator may, from time to time, issue such regulations and orders as he may deem necessary or proper in order to carry out the purposes and provisions of this Act. (Jan. 30, 1942, ch. 26, title II, § 201, 56 Stat. 29.)

§ 922. Investigations; records; reports.

(a) The Administrator is authorized to make such studies and investigations and to obtain such information as he deems necessary or proper to assist him in prescribing any regulation or order under this Act, or in the administration and enforcement of this Act and regulations, orders, and price schedules thereunder.

(b) The Administrator is further authorized, by regulation or order, to require any person who is engaged in the business of dealing with any commodity, or who rents or offers for rent or acts as broker or agent for the rental of any housing accommodations, to furnish any such information under oath or affirmation or otherwise, to make and keep records and other documents, and to make reports, and he may require any such person to permit the inspection and copying of records and other documents, the inspection of inventories, and the inspection of defense-area housing accommodations. The Administrator may administer oaths and affirmations and may, whenever necessary, by subpena require any such person to appear and testify or to appear and produce documents, or both, at any designated place.

(c) For the purpose of obtaining any information under subsection (a), the Administrator may by subpena require any other person to appear and testify or to appear and produce documents, or both, at any designated place.

(d) The production of a person's documents at any place other than his place of business shall not be required under this section in any case in which, prior to the return date specified in the subpena issued with respect thereto, such person either has furnished the Administrator with a copy of such documents (certified by such person under oath to be a true and correct copy), or has entered into a stipulation with the Administrator as to the information contained in such documents.

(e) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpena served upon, any person referred to in subsection (c), the district court for any district in which such person is found or resides or transacts business, upon application by the Administrator, shall have jurisdiction to issue an order requiring such person to appear and give testimony or to appear and produce documents, or both; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as a contempt thereof. The provisions of this subsection shall also apply to any person referred to in subsection (b), and shall be in addition to the provisions of section 4 (a) (section 904 (a) of this appendix).

(f) Witnesses subpenaed under this section shall be paid the same fees and mileage as are paid witnesses in the district courts of the United States.

(g) No person shall be excused from complying with any requirements under this section because of his privilege against self-incrimination, but the immunity provisions of the Compulsory Testimony Act of February 11, 1893 (U. S. C., 1934 edition, Title 49, sec. 46), shall apply with respect to any individual who specifically claims such privilege.

(h) The Administrator shall not publish or disclose any information obtained under this Act that such Administrator deems confidential or with reference to which a request for confidential treatment is made by the person furnishing such information, unless he determines that the withholding thereof is contrary to the interest of the national defense and security. (Jan. 30, 1942, ch. 26, title II, § 202, 56 Stat. 30.)

§ 923. Procedure.

(a) Within a period of sixty days after the issuance of any regulation or order under section 2 (section 902 of this appendix), or in the case of a price schedule, within a period of sixty days after the effective date thereof specified in section 206 (section 926 of this appendix), any person subject to any provision of such regulation, order, or price schedule may, in accordance with regulations to be prescribed by the Administrator, file a protest specifically setting forth objections to any such provision and affidavits or other written evidence in support of such objections. At any time after the expiration of such sixty days any persons subject to any provision of such regulation, order, or price schedule may file such a protest based solely on grounds arising after the expiration of such sixty days. Statements in support of any such regulation, order, or price schedule may be received and incorporated in the transcript of the proceedings at such times and in accordance with such regulations as may be prescribed by the Administrator. Within a reasonable time after the filing of any protest under this subsection, but in no event more than thirty days after such filing or ninety days after the issuance of the regulation or order (or in the case of a price schedule, ninety days after the effective date thereof specified in section 206 (section 926 of this appendix)) in respect of which the protest is filed, whichever occurs later, the Administrator shall either grant or deny such protest in whole or in part, notice such protest for hearing, or provide an opportunity to present further evidence in connection therewith. In the event that the Administrator denies any such protest in whole or in part, he shall inform the protestant of the grounds upon which such decision is based, and of any economic data and other facts of which the Administrator has taken official notice.

(b) In the administration of this Act the Administrator may take official notice of economic data and other facts, including facts found by him as a result of action taken under section 202 (section 902 of this appendix).

(c) Any proceedings under this section may be limited by the Administrator to the filing of affidavits, or other written evidence, and the filing of briefs. (Jan. 30, 1942, ch. 26, title II, § 203, 56 Stat. 31.)

§ 924. Review.

(a) Any person who is aggrieved by the denial or partial denial of his protest may, within thirty days after such denial, file a complaint with the Emergency Court of Appeals, created pursuant to subsection (c), specifying his objections and praying that the regulation, order, or price schedule protested be enjoined or set aside in whole or in part. A copy of such complaint shall forthwith be served on the Administrator, who shall certify and file with such court a transcript of such portions of the proceedings in connection with the protest as are material under the complaint. Such transcript shall include a statement setting forth, so far as practicable, the economic data and other facts of which the Administrator has taken official notice. Upon the filing of such complaint the court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to set aside such regulation, order, or price schedule, in whole or in part, to dismiss the complaint, or to remand the proceeding: Provided, That the regulation, order, or price schedule may be modified or rescinded by the Administrator at any time notwithstanding the pendency of such complaint. No objection to such regulation, order, or price schedule, and no evidence in support of any objection thereto, shall be considered by the court, unless such objection shall have been set forth by the complainant in the protest or such evidence shall be contained in the transcript. If application is made to the court by either party for leave to introduce additional evidence which was either offered to the Administrator and not admitted, or which could not reasonably have been offered to the Administrator or included by the Administrator in such proceedings, and the court determines that such evidence should be admitted, the court shall order the evidence to be presented to the Administrator. The Administrator shall promptly receive the same, and such other evidence as he deems necessary or proper, and thereupon he shall certify and file with the court a transcript thereof and any modification made in the regulation, order, or price schedule as a result thereof; except that on request by the Administrator, any such evidence shall be presented directly to the court.

(b) No such regulation, order, or price schedule shall be enjoined or set aside, in whole or in part, unless the complainant establishes to the satisfaction of the court that the regulation, order, or price schedule is not in accordance with law, or is arbitrary or capricious. The effectiveness of a judgment of the court enjoining or setting aside, in whole or in part, any such regulation, order, or price schedule shall be postponed until the expiration of thirty days from the entry thereof, except that if a petition for a writ of certiorari is filed with the Supreme Court under subsection (d) within such thirty days, the effectiveness of such judgment shall be postponed until an order of the Supreme Court denying such petition becomes final, or until other final disposition of the case by the Supreme Court.

(c) There is hereby created a court of the United States to be known as the Emergency Court of Appeals, which shall consist of three or more judges to be designated by the Chief Justice of the United States from judges of the United States district courts and circuit courts of appeals. The Chief Justice of the United States shall designate one of such judges as chief judge of the Emergency Court of Appeals, and may, from time to time, designate additional judges for such court and revoke previous designations. The chief judge may, from time to time, divide the court into divisions of three or more members, and any such division may render judgment as the judgment of the court. The court shall have the powers of a district court with respect to the jurisdiction conferred on it by this Act; except that the court shall not have power to issue any temporary restraining order or interlocutory decree staying or restraining, in whole or in part, the effectiveness of any regulation or order issued under section 2 (section 902 of this appendix) or any price schedule effective in accordance with the provisions of section 206 (section 926 of this appendix). The court shall exercise its powers and prescribe rules governing its procedure in such manner as to expedite the determination of cases of which it has jurisdiction under this Act. The court may fix and establish a table of costs and fees to be approved by the Supreme Court of the United States, but the costs and fees so fixed shall not exceed with respect to any item the costs and fees charged in the Supreme Court of the United States. The court shall have a seal, hold sessions at such places as it may specify, and appoint a clerk and such other employees as it deems necessary or proper.

(d) Within thirty days after entry of a judgment or order, interlocutory or final, by the Emergency Court of Appeals, a petition for a writ of certiorari may be filed in the Supreme Court of the United States, and thereupon the judgment or order shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court in the same manner as a judgment of a circuit court of appeals as provided in section 240 of the Judicial Code, as amended (U. S. C., 1934 edition, Title 28, sec. 347). The Supreme Court shall advance on the docket and expedite the disposition of all causes filed therein pursuant to this subsection. The Emergency Court of Appeals, and the Supreme Court upon review of judgments and orders of the Emergency Court of Appeals, shall have exclusive jurisdiction to determine the validity of any regulation or order issued under section 2 (section 902 of this appendix), of any price schedule effective in accordance with the provisions of section 206 (section 926 of this appendix), and of any provision of any such regulation, order, or price schedule. Except as provided in this section, no court, Federal, State, or Territorial, shall have jurisdiction or power to consider the validity of any such regulation, order, or price schedule, or to stay, restrain, enjoin, or set aside, in whole or in part, any provision of this Act authorizing the issuance of such regulations or orders, or making effective any such price schedule, or any provision of any such regulation, order, or price schedule, or to restrain or enjoin the enforcement of any such provision. (Jan. 30, 1942, ch. 26, title II, § 204, 56 Stat. 31.)

Five copies of all papers shall be served on the Price Administrator and one copy on all other parties.

Service by the clerk on the Price Administrator shall be made by mailing the copies to him at Washington in the District of Columbia. Service by the clerk on each other party shall be made by mailing the copy to his attorney of record or, if the party is not represented by an attorney, then to the party at his address shown on the complaint. The clerk shall note on his docket the names of the parties to whom he mails copies, with date of mailing. (See also Rule 22 (b).)

RULE 10. FILING AND DOCKETING COMPLAINT—APPEARANCE

(a) Filing and Docketing. All cases in the court shall be begun by filing a complaint in the clerk's office. Upon the filing of a complaint and nine conformed copies thereof and the payment of the filing fee, the clerk shall enter the case upon the docket in his office and shall assign a file number to it. The file number shall be noted on the docket and on the complaint and all papers subsequently filed in the case.

(b) Deposit for Costs. The complainant shall at the time of docketing the case make a deposit with the clerk of $35.00 on account of fees and costs to be incurred by him in this court, any unexpended amount to be returned to the complainant after final disposition of the case.

John Doe, Complainant,
v.

Price Administrator, Respondent.

(b) Contents. Each complaint shall specify in separate paragraphs (a) the regulation or order or price schedule protested and the date of issuance of such regulation or order and, in the case of a price schedule, its effective date; (b) the date on which the protest of such regulation or order or price schedule was filed with the Price Administrator and the disposition made of such protest by the Price Administrator together with the date of such disposition; (c) in what manner the complainant has been aggrieved by the denial or partial denial of his protest; (d) each objection asserted against the regulation, order or price schedule protested and intended to be relied upon; each objection, separately paragraphed and numbered consecutively, to be stated concisely, and the grounds in support of each to be briefly set forth in the same paragraph; and (e) the nature of the relief requested. The complaint need not be verified but shall be signed by the complainant or his attorney of record in this court in his individual name. Following the signature an address shall be stated at which papers may be served upon the complainant or his attorney.

RULE 12. FORM AND SIZE OF PAPERS GENERALLY. NUMBER OF COPIES TO BE FILED

(a) Legibility. All pleadings, motions, briefs and other papers filed in a case shall be clearly legible and either printed, typewritten, or prepared by means of a conventional duplicating process, such as mimeograph or multilith.

(b) Caption. All papers filed in a case shall be captioned in the manner set forth in Rule 11 (a).

(c) Papers to be Signed. Effect of Signature. Every pleading or other paper filed in a case shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in his individual name, whose address shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall himself sign such papers and shall state his address. Pleadings need not be verified or accompanied by an affidavit. The signature of an attorney constitutes a certificate by him that he has read the paper signed, that to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, there is good ground to support it, and that it is not interposed for delay.

(d) Form of Printed Papers. Printed papers shall be on opaque unglazed white paper of such form and size that they can be conveniently bound so as to make an ordinary octavo volume, having pages 6⅛ inches by 9¼ inches and typed matter 4⅛ inches by 7⅛ inches. They and all quotations contained therein and the matter appearing on the covers shall be printed in clear type (never smaller than small pica or 11 point type) adequately leaded.

(e) Form of Typewritten Papers. Typewritten papers shall be on one side only of opaque unglazed white paper (papers prepared by a duplicating process to be on standard duplicating paper), not larger than 8 inches by 10½ inches in size, and shall be bound on the left margin. They shall be double-spaced except for quotations, which may be single-spaced and indented. The clerk shall refuse to file typewritten carbon copies which are not clearly legible.

(f) Number of Copies to be Filed by Complainant. The complainant shall file with the clerk an original and at least nine copies of every pleading, brief, or other paper filed by him unless he shall file an acknowledgment or acceptance of service of the same, in which event only four copies (in addition to the original) need be filed. The copies before filing shall be conformed to the original thereof.

(g) Number of Copies to be Filed by Price Administrator. The Price Administrator shall file with the clerk an original and at least four copies of every pleading, brief, or other paper filed by him, unless he shall file an acknowledgment or acceptance of service of the same, in which event only three copies (in addition to the original) need be filed. The copies before filing shall be conformed to the original thereof.

(h) Number of Copies of Printed Papers to be Filed. If a pleading, brief or other paper is printed at least thirty copies shall be filed with the clerk, instead of the number specified in paragraphs (f) and (g) of this rule. One of the printed copies shall bear the signature of the party filing same, or his counsel of record.

RULE 13. MOTION TO DISMISS

Within ten (10) days after the service of the complaint the Price Administrator may file a motion to dismiss the complaint or to strike any portion thereof, for (a) lack of jurisdiction or (b) the failure of the complaint to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. No such objection shall be waived by the failure to file such a motion, but such objections and prayer may be included in any answer filed under Rule 16.

RULE 14. MOTIONS GENERALLY

(a) Form of Motions. All motions shall briefly and clearly set forth the relief sought and the grounds upon which the motion is based.

(b) Objections or Answer. Within five (5) days after service of any motion the other party may file objections in which shall be clearly set forth the reasons why the granting of the motion is opposed, or may file an answer.

(c) No Oral Argument Thereof. Motions shall be determined without oral argument unless otherwise ordered.

RULE 15. TRANSCRIPT

(a) Certification and Filing. A transcript of such portions of the proceedings in connection with the protest as are material under the complaint, including a statement setting forth so far as practicable the economic data and other facts of which the Price Administrator has taken official notice, shall be certified by the Price Administrator and filed with the clerk as promptly as practicable and in no event later than twenty days after the service of the complaint upon the Price Administrator. Provided, that if a motion to dismiss the complaint is filed by the Price Administrator pursuant to Rule 13, such transcript shall be filed in no event later than fifteen (15) days after service upon the Price Administrator of the order disposing of such motion. As amended Oct. 20, 1942.

(b) Supplemental Transcript. If, upon order of the court, as provided in Rule 18, additional evidence is presented to and received by the Price Administrator, a supplemental transcript of such additional evidence and such other evidence as the Price Administrator shall have deemed necessary or proper to be received, together with any modification made in the regulation, order, or price schedule as a result thereof, shall be certified by the Price Administrator and filed with the clerk within ten days after such evidence shall have been received or modification made in the regulation, order or price schedule.

(c) Ten Copies to be Filed. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, ten clearly legible copies of such transcript and supplemental transcript, if any, shall be filed with the clerk, and one copy thereof shall be served upon the complainant by the clerk as provided in Rule 9 (c).

(d) Correction. If anything material to either party is omitted from the transcript or supplemental transcript of proceedings by error or accident or is misstated therein, the parties by stipulation, or this court, on a proper suggestion or of its own initiative, may direct that the omission or misstatement shall be corrected, and if necessary that a supplemental transcript shall be certified and transmitted by the Price Administrator.

(e) Transcript Need Not Be Printed. It shall be unnecessary in this court to print the transcript of the proceedings filed by the Price Administrator.

RULE 16. ANSWER

Simultaneously with the filing of the transcript the Price Administrator shall file an answer to the complaint. The answer may include objections to the jurisdiction of the court, to the legal sufficiency of the complaint, and shall include admissions or denials of the facts alleged in the complaint. Facts alleged in the complaint and not denied in the answer may be taken as admitted.

RULE 17. AMENDMENT TO PLEADINGS

Pleadings may be amended before final judgment upon leave of court granted when justice so requires, provided that no complaint may be amended to specify objections that were not set forth by the complainant in his protest filed with the Administrator.

RULE 18. APPLICATION FOR LEAVE TO INTRODUCE ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE

(a) Form and Contents. Within ten days after service of the transcript the complainant or the Price Administrator may file an application for leave to introduce additional evidence. Such application shall contain (1) an offer of proof with respect to the additional evidence sought to be introduced, setting forth the character and form of such evidence and a summary of what such evidence would show if admitted; (2) a statement showing either that such evidence was offered to the Price Administrator and not admitted (with appropriate references to the transcript), or that such evidence could not reasonably have been offered to the Price Administrator or included by the Price Administrator in such proceedings; and (3) a statement showing that such evidence is necessary to a proper disposition of the case. Within five days after service of the application any party affected may file objections thereto. The application, together with any objections thereto, shall be submitted to the court without oral argument, unless otherwise directed by the court. A copy of the order disposing of the application shall be served by the clerk upon the parties as provided in Rule 9 (c).

(b) Manner of Taking Evidence. Whenever additional evidence shall be ordered presented directly to the court on request of the Price Administrator, the court of its own initiative or on the request of the Price Administrator shall determine whether such evidence shall be taken in open court, by deposition, written interrogatories, or affidavits.

RULE 19. CONSOLIDATING SIMILAR CASES

When complaints involving common questions of law or of fact are pending, the court on motion or of its own initiative may order all such cases consolidated for hearing, and may make such further orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delays.

RULE 20. DISMISSAL BY AGREEMENT

Whenever, after a case has been docketed in this court and prior to the hearing thereof, the complainant and respondent shall, by their attorneys of record, sign and file with the clerk an agreement in writing directing the case to be dismissed, and shall pay to the clerk any fees that may be due him, it shall be the duty of the clerk to enter such dismissal and to transmit forthwith a certified copy of the agreement to the Price Administrator, but no process shall issue without an order of the court.

RULE 21. BRIEFS

(a) Time of Filing Complainant's Brief. Except as provided in subparagraphs 1 and 2 hereof, the Complainant shall file his brief in support of the complaint within twenty (20) days after service upon him of the transcript.

(1) When application for leave to introduce additional evidence is filed pursuant to Rule 18 and the same is denied by the Court, Complainant shall file his brief within fifteen (15) days after service of the order of denial.

(2) When additional evidence is ordered to be taken pursuant to Rule 18, the Complainant shall file his brief within fifteen (15) days after service of the supplementary transcript if such evidence is presented to the Administrator, or within such time as the court may direct if such evidence is presented to the court. As amended Oct. 20, 1942.

(b) Contents of Complainant's Brief. The complainant's brief shall contain:

(1) A table of contents and a table of citations, the latter alphabetically arranged.

(2) A statement of the case, which shall consist of a concise, chronological, non-argumentative statement, in narrative form, of all the facts which should be known in order to determine the points in controversy. In the statement reference shall be made to the pages of the transcript relied upon to support the facts stated.

(3) Preceding the argument, a concise summary of the argument, suitably paragraphed.

NOTE: The summary of the argument should be a succinct, but accurate and clear, picture of the argument actually made in the brief concerning the points in controversy. Because the summary of argument if properly prepared is most helpful to the court in following the oral argument and will often render unnecessary the making of inquiries by the court which consume time allowed for argument, counsel are urged to prepare the summary with great care.

(4) An argument, which shall be divided, under appropriate headings distinctively arranged, into as many parts as there are points to be argued. All cases shall be cited to the official reports, if any, and also to the National Reporter System, if reported therein. Statutes shall be cited to the volume and page of the statutes at large or other session laws, and also to an official or standard code, revision or compilation where they may be found. Citations to text-books, treatises and other publications shall include the edition and year of publication.

(c) Time of Filing Price Administrator's Brief. The Price Administrator shall file his brief within twenty days after service upon him of the complainant's brief.

(d) Contents of Price Administrator's Brief. The Price Administrator's brief shall contain:

(1) A table of contents and a table of citations, the latter alphabetically arranged.

(2) A counter-statement of the case conforming to the requirements of paragraph (b) (2) of this rule, if he disagrees with the statement of the complainant.

(3) Preceding the argument, a concise summary of the argument, suitably paragraphed.

NOTE: The summary of the argument should be a succinct, but accurate and clear, picture of the argument actually made in the brief concerning the points in controversy. Because the summary of argument if properly prepared is most helpful to the court in following the oral argument and will often render unnecessary the making of inquiries by the court which consume time allowed for argument, counsel are urged to prepare the summary with great care.

(4) An argument, which shall conform to the requirements of paragraph (b) (4) of this rule.

(e) Complainant's Reply Brief. The complainant may file a reply brief within ten days after the service upon him of the Price Administrator's brief.

(f) Briefs Shall Be Bound—Length. All briefs shall be bound in suitable covers and shall not exceed fifty pages in length except by special permission of the court; but this limitation shall not apply to the table of contents and table of citations.

(g) Objections Not Presented. Objections stated in the complaint but not presented in the brief may be disregarded by the court.

(h) Briefs After Argument. No brief or memorandum will be received, through the clerk or otherwise, after a case has been argued or submitted, except by leave of court at the time of argument or on written motion filed with the clerk.

(i) Filing After Time. No brief shall be filed after the expiration of the time allowed, except by leave of court for extraordinary reasons shown.

RULE 22. TIME

(a) Manner of Computing. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed is to be included, unless it is a Sunday or a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Sunday or a holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than seven days, intermediate Sundays and holidays shall be excluded in the computation. A half holiday shall be considered as other days and not as a holiday.

(b) Computation of Time. When under these rules the time for doing an act is to run from the time of service of any pleading or paper, the time shall be computed

(1) If served by the clerk by mailing, from the third day after the date of mailing as noted on his docket.

(2) If service is acknowledged or accepted by a party, from the date of such acknowledgment or acceptance.

(c) Enlargement. When by these rules or by order of this court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court or a judge thereof for cause shown may (except where the time is also fixed by statute), at any time in the discretion of the court or a judge thereof, (1) upon motion order the period enlarged if application therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order, or (2) upon motion permit the act to be done after the expiration of the specified period where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect.

RULE 23. HEARING CALENDAR

(a) Cases placed on Calendar by Clerk. After the expiration of the time for filing the main briefs of the parties, the case shall be placed upon the hearing calendar by the clerk.

(b) Notice to Parties. After a case has been placed upon the hearing calendar the clerk will, whenever possible not less than ten days in advance, notify the parties of the time and place of hearing.

RULE 24. HEARING

(a) Time allowed. At the hearing the complainant and the Price Administrator shall each be allowed not more than one hour for oral argument, unless for good cause shown the court shall enlarge the time. The complainant shall be entitled to open and conclude the oral argument.

(b) Number of Counsel. Not more than two counsel shall be heard for each side, complainant and respondent, in the argument of the case, except by special leave of the court, upon sufficient reason shown.

(c) Submission on Briefs. Any case may be submitted on briefs, when reached in regular order, if counsel choose to submit it in that manner.

(d) Failure of Counsel to Appear. When a case is reached on the regular call, if briefs have been filed and no counsel appear to present oral argument, the case will be regarded as submitted on briefs.

(e) Failure of One Party to Appear. Where one party after filing brief fails to appear when the case is called for hearing, the court may hear argument on behalf of the party appearing and give judgment according to the right of the case.

(f) When Brief for Complainant Only is Filed and no Counsel Appears, Case Submitted. When a case is reached on the hearing calendar, if a brief has been filed for complainant only and no counsel appears to present oral argument, the case will be regarded as submitted.

(g) When Case Called and no Brief filed by Complainant, Case May be Dismissed. When a case is called for hearing and no brief has been filed for the complainant, the court at the instance of the Price Administrator or on its own motion may have the complainant called and the case dismissed.

RULE 25. OPINIONS OF THE COURT

(a) Printed—Rendered by Filing With Clerk. All opinions of the court shall be printed, unless otherwise ordered, under the supervision of the judge writing the opinion, and shall be rendered by being filed with the clerk. The clerk shall preserve the original opinions.

(b) Deposit for Printing. On demand by the clerk the complainant shall, within five days thereof, deposit with the clerk a sum estimated by him to cover the cost of printing the opinion, the unexpended balance of such deposit to be refunded after final disposition of the case.

(c) Recorded When Bound. Opinions need not be copied by the clerk into the minute book of the court, but he shall from time to time cause copies of the opinions to be bound in a substantial manner into volumes and when so bound they shall be deemed to have been recorded.

RULE 26. ENTRY OF ORDERS AND JUDGMENTS

All orders and judgments, interlocutory or final, shall be entered on the date such orders or judgments are filed with the clerk.

RULE 27. REHEARING

Petitions for rehearing or modification of judgment shall be made in writing and filed with the clerk of the court within ten days after the judgment is entered. An answer or objections thereto may be filed within five days after service thereof. All such petitions will be acted upon without oral argument, unless otherwise ordered.

RULE 28. DEATH OF A PARTY—SUBSTITUTION

(a) Generally. Where, during the pendency of a case in this court, the complainant shall die, the representatives of such deceased party may voluntarily enter their appearances and on motion be admitted as parties. If such representatives shall not voluntarily become parties, then the Price Administrator may suggest the death on the record, and proceedings shall be had as the court directs.

(b) Public Officer. Where a public officer, by or against whom a suit is brought, dies or ceases to hold the office while the suit is pending in this court, the matter of abatement and substitution is covered by Sec. 11 of the Act of Feb. 13, 1925, ch. 229 (43 Stat. 941), U. S. C., Title 28, sec. 780.

RULE 30. EFFECTIVE DATE

§ 925. Enforcement.

(a) Whenever in the judgment of the Administrator any person has engaged or is about to engage in any acts or practices which constitute or will constitute a violation of any provision of section 4 of this Act (section 904 of this appendix), he may make application to the appropriate court for an order enjoining such acts or practices, or for an order enforcing compliance with such provision, and upon a showing by the Administrator that such person has engaged or is about to engage in any such acts or practices a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order shall be granted without bond.

(b) Any person who willfully violates any provision of section 4 of this Act (section 904 of this appendix), and any person who makes any statement or entry false in any material respect in any document or report required to be kept or filed under section 2 or section 202 (sections 902 or 922 of this appendix), shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not more than $5,000, or to imprisonment for not more than two years in the case of a violation of section 4 (c) (section 904 of this appendix) and for not more than one year in all other cases, or to both such fine and imprisonment. Whenever the Administrator has reason to believe that any person is liable to punishment under this subsection, he may certify the facts to the Attorney General, who may, in his discretion, cause appropriate proceedings to be brought.

(c) The district courts shall have jurisdiction of criminal proceedings for violations of section 4 of this Act (section 904 of this appendix), and, concurrently with State and Territorial courts, of all other proceedings under section 205 of this Act (this section). Such criminal proceedings may be brought in any district in which any part of any act or transaction constituting the violation occurred. Except as provided in section 205 (f) (2) (this section), such other proceedings may be brought in any district in which any part of any act or transaction constituting the violation occurred, and may also be brought in the district in which the defendant resides or transacts business, and process in such cases may be served in any district wherein the defendant resides or transacts business or wherever the defendant may be found. Any such court shall advance on the docket and expedite the disposition of any criminal or other proceedings brought before it under this section. No costs shall be assessed against the Administrator or the United States Government in any proceeding under this Act.

(d) No person shall be held liable for damages or penalties in any Federal, State, or Territorial court, on any grounds for or in respect of anything done or omitted to be done in good faith pursuant to any provision of this Act or any regulation, order, price schedule, requirement, or agreement thereunder, or under any price schedule of the Administrator of the Office of Price Administration or of the Administrator of the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply, notwithstanding that subsequently such provision, regulation, order, price schedule, requirement, or agreement may be modified, rescinded, or determined to be invalid. In any suit or action wherein a party relies for ground of relief or defense upon this Act or any regulation, order, price schedule, requirement, or agreement thereunder, the court having jurisdiction of such suit or action shall certify such fact to the Administrator. The Administrator may intervene in any such suit or action.

(e) If any person selling a commodity violates a regulation, order, or price schedule prescribing a maximum price or maximum prices, the person who buys such commodity for use or consumption other than in the course of trade or business may bring an action either for $50 or for treble the amount by which the consideration exceeded the applicable maximum price, whichever is the greater, plus reasonable attorney's fees and costs as determined by the court. For the purposes of this section the payment or receipt of rent for defense-area housing accommodations shall be deemed the buying or selling of a commodity, as the case may be. If any person selling a commodity violates a regulation, order, or price schedule prescribing a maximum price or maximum prices, and the buyer is not entitled to bring suit or action under this subsection, the Administrator may bring such action under this subsection on behalf of the United States. Any suit or action under this subsection may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall be instituted within one year after delivery is completed or rent is paid. The provisions of this subsection shall not take effect until after the expiration of six months from the date of enactment of this Act.

(f) (1) Whenever in the judgment of the Administrator such action is necessary or proper in order to effectuate the purposes of this Act and to assure compliance with and provide for the effective enforcement of any regulation or order issued or which may be issued under section 2 (section 902 of this appendix), or of any price schedule effective in accordance with the provisions of section 206 (section 926 of this appendix), he may by regulation or order issue to or require of any person or persons subject to any regulation or order issued under section 2 (section 902 of this appendix), or subject to any such price schedule, a license as a condition of selling any commodity or commodities with respect to which such regulation, order, or price schedule is applicable. It shall not be necessary for the Administrator to issue a separate license for each commodity or for each regulation, order, or price schedule with respect to which a license is required. No such license shall contain any provision which could not be prescribed by regulation, order, or requirement under section 2 or section 202 (sections 902 or 922 of this appendix): Provided, That no such license may be required as a condition of selling or distributing (except as waste or scrap) newspapers, periodicals, books, or other printed or written material, or motion pictures, or as a condition of selling radio time: Provided further, That no license may be required of any farmer as a condition of selling any agricultural commodity produced by him, and no license may be required of any fisherman as a condition of selling any fishery commodity caught or taken by him: Provided further, That in any case in which such a license is required of any person, the Administrator shall not have power to deny to such person a license to sell any commodity or commodities, unless such person already has such a license to sell such commodity or commodities, or unless there is in effect under paragraph (2) of this subsection with respect to such person an order of suspension of a previous license to the extent that such previous license authorized such person to sell such commodity or commodities.

(2) Whenever in the judgment of the Administrator a person has violated any of the provisions of a license issued under this subsection, or has violated any of the provisions of any regulation, order, or requirement under section 2 or section 202 (b) (sections 902 or 922 of this appendix), or any of the provisions of any price schedule effective in accordance with the provisions of section 206 (section 926 of this appendix), which is applicable to such person, a warning notice shall be sent by registered mail to such person. If the Administrator has reason to believe that such person has again violated any of the provisions of such license, regulation, order, price schedule, or requirement after receipt of such warning notice, the Administrator may petition any State or Territorial court of competent jurisdiction, or a district court subject to the limitations hereinafter provided, for an order suspending the license of such person for any period of not more than twelve months. If any such court finds that such person has violated any of the provisions of such license, regulation, order, price schedule, or requirement after the receipt of the warning notice, such court shall issue an order suspending the license to the extent that it authorizes such person to sell the commodity or commodities in connection with which the violation occurred, or to the extent that it authorizes such person to sell any commodity or commodities with respect to which a regulation or order issued under section 2 (section 902 of this appendix), or a price schedule effective in accordance with the provisions of section 206 (section 926 of this appendix), is applicable; but no such suspension shall be for a period of more than twelve months. For the purposes of this subsection, any such proceedings for the suspension of a license may be brought in a district court if the licensee is doing business in more than one State, or if his gross sales exceed $100,000 per annum. Within thirty days after the entry of the judgment or order of any court either suspending a license, or dismissing or denying in whole or in part the Administrator's petition for suspension, an appeal may be taken from such judgment or order in like manner as an appeal may be taken in other cases from a judgment or order of a State, Territorial, or district court, as the case may be. Upon good cause shown, any such order of suspension may be stayed by the appropriate court or any judge thereof in accordance with the applicable practice; and upon written stipulation of the parties to the proceeding for suspension, approved by the trial court, any such order of suspension may be modified, and the license which has been suspended may be restored, upon such terms and conditions as such court shall find reasonable. Any such order of suspension shall be affirmed by the appropriate appellate court if, under the applicable rules of law, the evidence in the record supports a finding that there has been a violation of any provision of such license, regulation, order, price schedule, or requirement after receipt of such warning notice. No proceedings for suspension of a license, and no such suspension, shall confer any immunity from any other provision of this Act. (Jan. 30, 1942, ch. 26, title II, § 205, 56 Stat. 33.)

§ 926. Saving provisions.

Any price schedule establishing a maximum price or maximum prices, issued by the Administrator of the Office of Price Administration or the Administrator of the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply, prior to the date upon which the Administrator provided for by section 201 of this Act (section 921 of this appendix) takes office, shall, from such date, have the same effect as if issued under section 2 of this Act (section 902 of this appendix) until such price schedule is superseded by action taken pursuant to such section 2 (section 902 of this appendix). Such price schedules shall be consistent with the standards contained in section 2 (section 902 of this appendix) and the limitations contained in section 3 of this Act (section 903 of this appendix), and shall be subject to protest and review as provided in section 203 and section 204 of this Act (sections 923 and 924 of this appendix). All such price schedules shall be reprinted in the Federal Register within ten days after the date upon which such Administrator takes office. (Jan. 30, 1942, ch. 26, title II, § 206, 56 Stat. 35.)

If the Senate or the House of Representatives is not in session, such reports shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Senate, or the Clerk of the House of Representatives, as the case may be. (Oct. 2, 1942, ch. 578, § 2, 56 Stat. 765.)

§ 963. Maximum prices for agricultural commodities and products.

No maximum price shall be established or maintained for any agricultural commodity under authority of this Act or otherwise below a price which will reflect to producers of agricultural commodities the higher of the following prices, as determined and published by the Secretary of Agriculture—

(1) The parity price for such commodity (adjusted by the Secretary of Agriculture for grade, location, and seasonal differentials) or, in case a comparable price has been determined for such commodity under and in accordance with the provisions of section 3 (b) of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 (section 903 (b) of this appendix), such comparable price (adjusted in the same manner), or

(2) The highest price received by such producers for such commodity between January 1, 1942, and September 15, 1942 (adjusted by the Secretary of Agriculture for grade, location, and seasonal differentials), or, if the market for such commodity was inactive during the latter half of such period, a price for the commodity determined by the Secretary of Agriculture to be in line with the prices, during such period, of other agricultural commodities produced for the same general use;

and no maximum price shall be established or maintained under authority of this Act or otherwise for any commodity processed or manufactured in whole or substantial part from any agricultural commodity below a price which will reflect to the producers of such agricultural commodity a price therefor equal to the higher of the prices specified in clauses (1) and (2) of this section: Provided, That the President may, without regard to the limitation contained in clause (2), adjust any such maximum price to the extent that he finds necessary to correct gross inequities; but nothing in this section shall be construed to permit the establishment in any case of a maximum price below a price which will reflect to the producers of any agricultural commodity the price therefor specified in clause (1) of this section: Provided further, That modifications shall be made in maximum prices established for any agricultural commodity and for commodities processed or manufactured in whole or substantial part from any agricultural commodity, under regulations to be prescribed by the President, in any case where it appears that such modification is necessary to increase the production of such commodity for war purposes, or where by reason of increased labor or other costs to the producers of such agricultural commodity incurred since January 1, 1941, the maximum prices so established will not reflect such increased costs: Provided further, That in the fixing of maximum prices on products resulting from the processing of agricultural commodities, including livestock, a generally fair and equitable margin shall be allowed for such processing: Provided further, That in fixing price maximums for agricultural commodities and for commodities processed or manufactured in whole or substantial part from any agricultural commodity, as provided for by this Act, adequate weighting shall be given to farm labor. (Oct. 2, 1942, ch. 578, § 3, 56 Stat. 766.)

§ 964. Wages and salaries; limitations on control.

No action shall be taken under authority of this Act with respect to wages or salaries (1) which is inconsistent with the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended (Title 5, § 616; Title 29, § 201 et seq.), or the National Labor Relations Act (Title 29, § 151 et seq.), or (2) for the purpose of reducing the wages or salaries for any particular work below the highest wages or salaries paid therefor between January 1, 1942, and September 15, 1942: Provided, That the President may, without regard to the limitation contained in clause (2), adjust wages or salaries to the extent that he finds necessary in any case to correct gross inequities and also aid in the effective prosecution of the war. (Oct. 2, 1942, ch. 578, § 4, 56 Stat. 766.)

§ 965. Same; prohibition of violation of regulations; employer's reduction of salaries over $5,000; regulation of payment of double time.

(a) No employer shall pay, and no employee shall receive, wages or salaries in contravention of the regulations promulgated by the President under this Act. The President shall also prescribe the extent to which any wage or salary payment made in contravention of such regulations shall be disregarded by the executive departments and other governmental agencies in determining the costs or expenses of any employer for the purposes of any other law or regulation.

(b) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the reduction by any private employer of the salary of any of his employees which is at the rate of $5,000 or more per annum.

(c) The President shall have power by regulation to limit or prohibit the payment of double time except when, because of emergency conditions, an employee is required to work for seven consecutive days in any regularly scheduled work week. (Oct. 2, 1942, ch. 578, § 5, 56 Stat. 767.)

§ 966. Termination of Act.

The provisions of this Act (except sections 8 and 9 (sections 968 and 969 of this appendix, and amendments to Title 15, § 713a–8)), and all regulations thereunder, shall terminate on June 30, 1944, or on such earlier date as the Congress by concurrent resolution, or the President by proclamation, may prescribe. (Oct. 2, 1942, ch. 578, § 6, 56 Stat. 767.)

(b) All provisions (including prohibitions and penalties) of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 (section 901 et seq. of this appendix) which are applicable with respect to orders or regulations under such Act shall, insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be applicable in the same manner and for the same purposes with respect to regulations or orders issued by the Price Administrator in the exercise of any functions which may be delegated to him under authority of this Act.

(c) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to invalidate any provision of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 (section 901 et seq. of this appendix) (except to the extent that such provisions are suspended under authority of section 2 (section 962 of this appendix)), or to invalidate any regulation, price schedule, or order issued or effective under such Act. (Oct. 2, 1942, ch. 578, § 7, 56 Stat. 767.)

§ 968. Crop loans.

(a) The Commodity Credit Corporation is authorized and directed to make available upon any crop of the commodities cotton, corn, wheat, rice, tobacco, and peanuts harvested after December 31, 1941, and before the expiration of the two-year period beginning with the 1st day of January immediately following the date upon which the President by proclamation or the Congress by concurrent resolution declares that hostilities in the present war have terminated, if producers have not disapproved marketing quotas for such commodity for the marketing year beginning in the calendar year in which such crop is harvested, loans as follows:

(1) To cooperators (except cooperators outside the commercial corn-producing area, in the case of corn) at the rate of 90 per centum of the parity price for the commodity as of the beginning of the marketing year;

(2) To cooperators outside the commercial corn-producing area, in the case of corn, at the rate of 75 per centum of the rate specified in (1) above;

(3) To noncooperators (except noncooperators outside the commercial corn-producing area, in the case of corn) at the rate of 60 per centum of the rate specified in (1) above and only on so much of the commodity as would be subject to penalty if marketed.

(b) All provisions of law applicable with respect to loans under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (Title 7, §§ 612c, 1281 et seq.; Title 15, §§ 713c, 713c–1; Title 16, §§ 590h, 590*o*), shall, insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, be applicable with respect to loans made under this section.

(c) In the case of any commodity with respect to which loans may be made at the rate provided in paragraph (1) of subsection (a), the President may fix the loan rate at any rate not less than the loan rate otherwise provided by law if he determines that the loan rate so fixed is necessary to prevent an increase in the cost of feed for livestock and poultry and to aid in the effective prosecution of the war. (Oct. 2, 1942, ch. 578, § 8, 56 Stat. 767.)

§ 969. Amendment of provision relating to encouragement of production of non-basic agricultural commodities.

(2) By striking out "85 per centum" and inserting in lieu thereof "90 per centum".

(3) By inserting after the word "tobacco" a comma and the word "peanuts".

(b) The amendments made by this section shall, irrespective of whether or not there is any further public announcement under such section 4 (a) (Title 15, § 713a–8 (a)), be applicable with respect to any commodity with respect to which a public announcement has heretofore been made under such section 4 (a) (Title 15, § 713a–8 (a)). (Oct. 2, 1942, ch. 578, § 9, 56 Stat. 768.)

When used in this Act, the terms "wages" and "salaries" shall include additional compensation, on an annual or other basis, paid to employees by their employers for personal services (excluding insurance and pension benefits in a reasonable amount to be determined by the President); but for the purpose of determining wages or salaries for any period prior to September 16, 1942, such additional compensation shall be taken into account only in cases where it has been customarily paid by employers to their employees. (Oct. 2, 1942, ch. 578, § 10, 56 Stat. 768.)

§ 1101. Mobilization of productive capacity by Chairman of War Production Board; cooperation with other governmental agencies.

In addition to the powers and duties of the Chairman of the War Production Board defined by Executive Order Numbered 9024 of January 16, 1942, and by Executive Order Numbered 9040 of January 24, 1942, it shall be the duty of the Chairman of the War Production Board, and he is hereby empowered, through a deputy to be appointed by him, to mobilize aggressively the productive capacity of all small business concerns, and to determine the means by which such concerns can be most efficiently and effectively utilized to augment war production.

It shall also be the duty of the Chairman of the War Production Board, and he is hereby empowered, through the deputy so appointed by him, to cooperate to the fullest practicable extent with the Director of Civilian Supply and other appropriate governmental agencies in the issuance of all orders limiting production by business enterprises, with a view to insuring that small business concerns will be most efficiently and effectively utilized in the production of articles, equipment, supplies, and materials for both war and essential civilian purposes. (June 11, 1942, ch. 404, § 1, 56 Stat. 351.)

§ 1102. Powers of Chairman of the War Production Board.

The Chairman of the War Production Board shall have power, and he is hereby directed, whenever and to the extent that he determines such action to be necessary—

(1) to make, or arrange with the Bureau of the Census or such other governmental agency as may be possessed of the necessary personnel and facilities for the making of, a complete inventory of all productive facilities in the United States which may be used for war production;

(2) to direct the attention of officers of the Government having procurement powers to the potential productive capacity of plants operated by small business concerns;

(3) to obtain information with respect to the extent and the terms upon which prime contractors with the Government have let subcontracts, and to take such action as he may deem appropriate to bring about the letting by such prime contractors of subcontracts upon fair and equitable terms and in the greatest volume practicable;

(4) to take such action as will result in the granting of such Government contracts to business concerns operating small plants as will provide them with a sufficient incentive to engage in war production and to make such conversion of their plants as may be necessary to engage in war production;

(5) to certify to the Smaller War Plants Corporation established under section 4 of this Act (section 1104 of this appendix) and to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation or any of its subsidiaries, the amount of funds necessary for the conversion to war production of any small plant or other plant interested in obtaining from the Smaller War Plants Corporation, or from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, or any such subsidiary, the capital necessary to provide for such conversion;

(6) to certify to Government procurement officers with respect to the competency, as to capacity and credit, of any small business concern or group of such concerns to perform a specific Government procurement contract;

(7) to obtain from the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, the Director of the Procurement Division of the Treasury, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and any subsidiary thereof, and any other Federal department, establishment, or agency engaged in war procurement or in the financing of war procurement or production, such reports concerning the letting of contracts and subcontracts and making of loans to business concerns as he may deem pertinent in carrying out his functions under this Act; and

(8) to make studies with respect to the means by which small business concerns may be supplied with essential raw materials and receive fair and reasonable treatment from all Government departments and agencies without interfering with the efficiency of the war-production program. (June 11, 1942, ch. 404, § 2, 56 Stat. 352.)

§ 1103. Certification of small business group as competent Government contractor as conclusive on Government agencies.

In any case in which a small business concern or group of such concerns has been certified by or under the authority of the Chairman of the War Production Board to be a competent Government contractor with respect to capacity and credit as to a specific Government procurement contract, the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, the Director of the Procurement Division of the Treasury, and all other officers of the Government having procurement powers are directed to accept such certification as conclusive, and are authorized to let such Government procurement contract to such concern or group of concerns without requiring it to meet any other requirements with respect to capacity and credit. The Congress hereby recognizes the fact that business concerns operating small plants are frequently unable to produce certain articles at as low a per unit cost as business concerns operating large plants and that, as a consequence of such fact, in order to mobilize the Nation's full productive capacity, including both large and small plants, it may be necessary for the Government to pay a higher per unit price for such articles to business concerns operating small plants than it pays to business concerns operating large plants. (June 11, 1942, ch. 404, § 3, 56 Stat. 352.)

§ 1104. Smaller War Plants Corporation—(a) Creation of corporation; location of principal office.

There is hereby created a body corporate under the name "Smaller War Plants Corporation" (hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation"). The principal office of the Corporation shall be located in the District of Columbia, but the Corporation may establish such branch offices in other places in the United States as may be determined by the board of directors.

(b) Capital stock.

The Corporation shall have capital stock of $150,000,000, subscribed for by the United States through the Secretary of the Treasury, and payment for which shall be subject to call in whole or in part by the board of directors of the Corporation. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated the sum of $150,000,000 for the purpose of enabling the Secretary of the Treasury to make payment for such capital stock when payment is called by the board of directors. Receipts for payments by the United States for or on account of such capital stock shall be issued by the Corporation to the Secretary of the Treasury and shall be evidence of the stock ownership by the United States.

(c) Appointment of board of directors; selection of chairman and vice chairman.

The management of the Corporation shall be vested in a board of five directors, deemed to be familiar with the problems of small business, to be appointed by the Chairman of the War Production Board. The board of directors shall select a chairman and a vice chairman from among the members of the board.

(d) Span of life and general powers of corporation.

The Corporation shall not have succession, beyond July 1, 1945, except for purposes of liquidation, unless its life is extended beyond such date pursuant to an Act of Congress. It shall have power to adopt, alter, and use a corporate seal, which shall be judicially noticed; to make contracts; to lease such real estate as may be necessary for the transaction of its business; to sue and be sued, to complain and to defend, in any court of competent jurisdiction, State or Federal; to select, employ, and fix the compensation of such officers, employees, attorneys, and agents as shall be necessary for the transaction of the business of the Corporation; to define their authority and duties, require bonds of them, and fix the penalties thereof; and to prescribe, amend, and repeal, by its board of directors, bylaws, rules, and regulations govering the manner in which its general business may be conducted and the powers granted to it by law may be exercised and enjoyed. The board of directors of the Corporation shall determine and prescribe the manner in which its obligations shall be incurred and its expenses allowed and paid. The Corporation shall be entitled to the free use of the United States mails in the same manner as the executive departments of the Government. The Corporation, with the consent of any board, commission, independent establishment, or executive department of the Government, including any field service thereof, may avail itself of the use of information, services, facilities, officers, and employees thereof in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

All moneys of the Corporation not otherwise employed may be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States subject to check by authority of the Corporation or in any Federal Reserve bank. The Federal Reserve banks are authorized and directed to act as depositaries, custodians, and fiscal agents for the Corporation in the general performance of its powers conferred by this Act. All insured banks, when designated by the Secretary of the Treasury, shall act as depositaries, custodians, and financial agents for the Corporation.

(f) Power to make loans, purchase or lease property, contract with Government, let subcontracts, etc.; certification of competence for procurement contracts.

The Corporation is empowered (1) to make loans or advances, on such terms and conditions and with such maturities as it may determine, to enable small business concerns to finance plant construction, conversion, or expansion, or to finance the acquisition of equipment, facilities, machinery, supplies, or materials, or to supply such concerns with capital, to be used in the manufacture of articles, equipment, supplies, or materials for war or essential civilian purposes; and such loans or advances may be made or effected either directly or in cooperation with banks or other lending institutions through agreements to participate or by the purchase of participations, or otherwise; (2) to purchase or lease such land, to purchase, lease, build, or expand such plants, and to purchase or produce such equipment, facilities, machinery, materials, or supplies, as may be needed to enable the Corporation to provide small business concerns with such land, plants, equipment, facilities, machinery, materials, or supplies as such concerns may require to engage in the production of such articles, equipment, supplies, or materials; (3) to lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of to any small business concern any such land, plants, equipment, facilities, machinery, materials, or supplies; (4) to enter into contracts with the United States Government and any department, agency, or officer thereof having procurement powers obligating the Corporation to furnish articles, equipment, supplies, or materials to the Government; and (5) to arrange for the performance of such contracts by letting subcontracts to small business concerns or others for the manufacture, supply, or assembly of such articles, equipment, supplies, or materials, or parts thereof, or servicing or processing in connection therewith, or such management services as may be necessary to enable the Corporation to perform such contracts. In any case in which the Chairman of the War Production Board certifies to the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, the Director of the Procurement Division of the Treasury, or to any other officer of the Government having procurement powers, that the Smaller War Plants Corporation is competent to perform any specific Government procurement contract to be let by any such officer, it shall be the duty of such officer to let such procurement contract to such Corporation upon such terms and conditions as may be specified by the Chairman of the War Production Board. Such subcontracts may be let upon such terms and conditions as the Corporation may deem appropriate in accordance with such regulations as may be prescribed under section 201 of the First War Powers Act, 1941 (section 611 of this appendix).

(g) Offenses and penalties.

Res. July 3, 1942, ch. 482, 56 Stat. 645, as amended Oct. 2, 1942, ch. 577, 56 Stat. 765, extended from June 30, 1942, to and including Nov. 30, 1942, the provisions for the payment of overtime rates of compensation contained in this act.

§ 1151. Advance and partial payments on defense contracts; lien on payments; report to Congress.

Whenever in the opinion of the President of the United States such course would be in the best interests of national defense during the national emergency declared by the President on September 8, 1939, to exist, the Secretary of the Navy, or the Secretary of the Treasury in the case of Coast Guard contracts, is authorized to advance, from appropriations available therefor, payments to contractors in amounts not exceeding 30 per centum of the contract price, upon such terms as such Secretary shall prescribe, and adequate security for the protection of the Government for the payments so made shall be required. The Secretary concerned is further authorized in his discretion to make partial payments on the balance of the contract price from time to time during the progress of the work, such partial payments not to exceed the value of the work already done, but to be subject to a lien as provided by the Act of August 22, 1911 (37 Stat. 32; 34 U. S. C., § 582), entitled "An Act authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to make partial payments for work already done under public contracts,": Provided, That the Secretary concerned shall report every three months to the Congress the advance payments made under the authority of this section. (June 28, 1940, ch. 440, title I, § 1, 54 Stat. 676.)

§ 1152. Contracts for acquisition, construction and repair of naval vessels, aircraft, and equipment therefor—(a) (1) Negotiation authorized; priority of deliveries; open market purchases; bond; limitation of contractor's fee.

Whenever deemed by the President of the United States to be in the best interests of the national defense during the national emergency declared by the President on September 8, 1939, to exist, the Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to negotiate contracts for the acquisition, construction, repair, or alteration of complete naval vessels or aircraft, or any portion thereof, including plans, spare parts, and equipment therefor, that have been or may be authorized, and also for machine tools and other similar equipment, with or without advertising or competitive bidding upon determination that the price is fair and reasonable. Deliveries of material under all orders placed pursuant to the authority of this paragraph and all other naval contracts or orders and deliveries of material under all Army contracts or orders shall, in the discretion of the President, take priority over all deliveries for private account or for export: Provided, That the Secretary of the Navy shall report every three months to the Congress the contracts entered into under the authority of this paragraph: Provided further, That contracts negotiated pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph shall not be deemed to be contracts for the purchase of such materials, supplies, articles, or equipment as may usually be bought in the open market within the meaning of section 9 of the Act entitled "An Act to provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes", approved June 30, 1936 (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U. S. C. §§ 35–45): Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall relieve a bidder or contractor of the obligation to furnish the bonds under the requirements of the Act of August 24, 1935 (49 Stat. 793; 40 U. S .C. § 270 (a) to (d)): Provided further, That the cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost system of contracting shall not be used under the authority granted by this paragraph to negotiate contracts; but this proviso shall not be construed to prohibit the use of the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee form of contract when such use is deemed necessary by the Secretary of the Navy: And provided further, That the fixed fee to be paid the contractor as a result of any contract entered into under the authority of this paragraph, or any War Department contract entered into in the form of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee, shall not exceed 7 per centum of the estimated cost of the contract (exclusive of the fee as determined by the Secretary of the Navy or the Secretary of War, as the case may be).

(2) Material entitled to priority in delivery.

Deliveries of material to which priority may be assigned pursuant to paragraph (1) shall include, in addition to deliveries of material under contracts or orders of the Army or Navy, deliveries of material under—

(A) Contracts or orders for the government of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to promote the defense of the United States" (22 U. S. C. §§ 411–419);

(B) Contracts or orders which the President shall deem necessary or appropriate to promote the defense of the United States;

(C) Subcontracts or suborders which the President shall deem necessary or appropriate to the fulfillment of any contract or order as specified in this subsection (a).

Deliveries under any contract or order specified in this subsection (a) may be assigned priority over deliveries under any other contract or order; and the President may require acceptance of and performance under such contracts or orders in preference to other contracts or orders for the purpose of assuring such priority. Whenever the President is satified that the fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States will result in a shortage in the supply of any material or of any facilities for defense or for private account or for export, the President may allocate such material or facilities in such manner, upon such conditions and to such extent as he shall deem necessary or appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

(3) Inspection of records and property; investigations.

The President shall be entitled to obtain such information from, require such reports and the keeping of such records by, make such inspection of the books, records, and other writings, premises or property of, any person (which, for the purpose of this subsection (a), shall include any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not), and make such investigations, as may be necessary or appropriate, in his discretion, to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this subsection (a).

(4) Attendance of witnesses; production of evidence; fees; privilege of witnesses; disclosure of information.

(4) For the purpose of obtaining any information, verifying any report required, or making any investigation pursuant to paragraph (3), the President may administer oaths and affirmations, and may require by subpena or otherwise the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of any books or records or any other documentary or physical evidence which may be relevant to the inquiry. Such attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of such books, records, or other documentary or physical evidence may be required at any designated place from any State, Territory, or other place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States: Provided, That the production of a person's books, records, or other documentary evidence shall not be required at any place other than the place where such person resides or transacts business, if, prior to the return date specified in the subpena issued with respect thereto, such person furnishes the President with a true copy of such books, records, or other documentary evidence (certified by such person under oath to be a true and correct copy) or enters into a stipulation with the President as to the information contained in such books, records, or other documentary evidence. Witnesses shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States. No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing any books, records, or other documentary evidence or certified copies thereof or physical evidence in obedience to any such subpena, or in any action or proceeding which may be instituted under this subsection (a), on the ground that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual shall be subject to prosecution and punishment or to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, after having claimed his privilege against self-incrimination, except that any such individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying. The President shall not publish or disclose any information obtained under this paragraph which the President deems confidential or with reference to which a request for confidential treatment is made by the person furnishing such information, unless the President determines that the withholding thereof is contrary to the interest of the national defense and security; and anyone violating this provision shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding $1,000, or be imprisoned not exceeding two years, or both.

(5) Penalties for violation.

Any person who willfully performs any act prohibited, or willfully fails to perform any act required by, any provision of this subsection (a) or any rule, regulation, or order thereunder, whether heretofore or hereafter issued, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.

(6) Jurisdiction of courts; venue of proceedings; service of process; costs.

The district courts of the United States and the United States courts of any Territory or other place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States and the courts of the Philippine Islands shall have jurisdiction of violations of this subsection (a) or any rule, regulation, or order or subpena thereunder, whether heretofore or hereafter issued, and of all civil actions under this subsection (a) to enforce any liability or duty created by, or to enjoin any violation of, this subsection (a) or any rule, regulation, order, or subpena thereunder whether heretofore or hereafter issued. Any criminal proceeding on account of any such violation may be brought in any district in which any act, failure to act, or transaction constituting the violation occurred. Any such civil action may be brought in any such district or in the district in which the defendant resides or transacts business. Process in such cases, criminal or civil, may be served in any district wherein the defendant resides or transacts business or wherever the defendant may be found; and subpena for witnesses who are required to attend a court in any district in any such case may run into any other district. No costs shall be assessed against the United States in any proceeding under this subsection (a).

(7) Liability for default on contract or orders.

No person shall be held liable for damages or penalties for any default under any contract or order which shall result directly or indirectly from compliance with this subsection (a) or any rule, regulation, or order issued thereunder, notwithstanding that any such rule, regulation, or order shall thereafter be declared by judicial or other competent authority to be invalid.

(8) Exercise of powers by President.

The President may exercise any power, authority, or discretion conferred on him by this subsection (a), through such department, agency, or officer of the Government as he may direct and in conformity with any rules or regulations which he may prescribe.

(b) Assent by contractors to certain conditions of contract.

After the date of approval of the Second Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act, 1941 (September 9, 1940), no contract shall be made for the construction or manufacture of any complete naval vessel or any portion thereof, under the provisions of this section or otherwise, unless the contractor agrees, for the purposes of section 3 of the Act of March 27, 1934 (48 Stat. 505; 34 U. S. C. § 496), as amended—

(1) to pay into the Treasury profit in excess of 8 per centum (in lieu of the 10 per centum specified in such section 3) of the total contract prices of such contracts within the scope of this subsection as are completed by the particular contracting party within the income taxable year;

(2) that any profit in excess of 8.7 per centum of the cost of performing such contracts except prime contracts made on a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee basis as are completed by the contracting party within the income taxable year shall be considered to be profit in excess of 8 per centum of the total contract prices of such contracts; and

(3) that he will make no subcontract which is within the scope of such section 3, unless the subcontractor agrees to the foregoing conditions. (June 28, 1940, ch. 440, title I, § 2, 54 Stat. 676; as amended Sept. 9, 1940, 9 a. m., E. S. § 1153. Limitation of provisions of section 496 of Title 34 to contracts in excess of $25,000.

The provisions of section 3 of the Act of March 27, 1934 (48 Stat. 505), as amended by the Acts of June 25, 1936 (49 Stat. 1926), and April 3, 1939 (53 Stat. 560; 34 U. S. C. § 496), and as made applicable to contracts for aircraft or any portion thereof for the Army by such Act of April 3, 1939, shall, in the case of contracts or subcontracts entered into after the date of approval of this Act and during the period of the national emergency declared by the President on September 8, 1939, to exist, be limited to contracts or subcontracts where the award exceeds $25,000. (June 28, 1940, ch. 440, title I, § 3, 54 Stat. 677.)

§ 1154. Certification of necessity and cost of special additional equipment; report of cost thereof.

In the case of every contract or subcontract for the construction or manufacture of any complete naval vessel or Army or Navy aircraft or any portion thereof which is entered into (whether before or after the date of approval of this Act), the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, as the case may be, after agreement with the contractor or subcontractor, shall certify to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue as to (a) the necessity and cost of special additional equipment and facilities acquired to facilitate, during the national emergency declared by the President on September 8, 1939, to exist, the completion of such naval vessel or Army or Navy aircraft or portion thereof in private plants; and (b) the percentage of cost of such special additional equipment and facilities to be charged against such contract or subcontract. For all purposes of section 3 of the Act of March 27, 1934 (48 Stat. 505; 34 U .S. C. § 496), as amended, such certification shall be subject to such regulations as the President may prescribe, but shall be binding upon the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, unless, within five days after receipt of such certification, he make formal objection thereto to the Secretary of the Navy or the Secretary of War as the case may be. The part of such cost chargeable against the contract or subcontract in pursuance of such certification, shall, for the purposes of such section 3 (34 U. S. C. § 496), be considered to be a reduction of the contract price of the contract or subcontract. The amount charged against the contract or subcontract in pursuance of such certification shall, for the purposes of such section 3 (34 U. S. C. § 496), be applied against and reduce the cost or other basis of such special additional equipment and facilities as of the date of installation thereof: Provided, That the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, as the case may be, shall report to the Congress, every three months, the cost of such special additional equipment and facilities to be borne by the Government under each contract. (June 28, 1940, ch. 440, title I, § 4, 54 Stat. 677.)

Supp. V, title 5, sec. 29a), may be modified accordingly: And provided further, That notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the President is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to prescribe regulations to establish such uniformity among the War and Navy Departments and the Coast Guard and their field services in regard to hours of work and compensation for overtime of their civilian employees as he may deem necessary in the interest of national defense.

(b) During the national emergency declared by the President on September 8, 1939, to exist, the provisions of the law prohibiting more than eight hours' labor in any one day of persons engaged upon work covered by Army, Navy, and Coast Guard contracts shall be suspended. (June 28, 1940, ch. 440, title I, § 5, 54 Stat. 678.)

§ 1156. Reemployment of retired employees, deductions from salary, separation from service, suspension of annuity, removal and reinstatement.

S. C. § 652), shall not apply to any civil-service employee of the War or Navy Departments or of the Coast Guard, or their field services, whose immediate removal is, in the opinion of the Secretary concerned warranted by the demands of national security, but nothing herein shall be construed to repeal, modify, or suspend the proviso in that section. Those persons summarily removed under the authority of this section may, if in the opinion of the Secretary concerned, subsequent investigation so warrants, be reinstated, and if so reinstated shall be allowed compensation for the period of such removal at the rate they were receiving on the date of removal: And provided further, That within thirty days after such removal any such person shall have an opportunity personally to appear before the official designated by the Secretary concerned and be fully informed of the reasons for such removal, and to submit, within thirty days thereafter, such statement or affidavits, or both, as he may desire to show why he should be retained and not removed. Employees who forego their vacations in accordance with the provisions of this section may be paid, in addition to their regular pay, the equivalent of the pay they would have drawn during the period of such vacation. The provisions of this section shall be applicable only to employees whose services at the time cannot, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Navy or the Secretary of the Treasury, as the case may be, be spared without detriment to the national defense." § 1191. Renegotiation of contracts; determination and recovery of excess profits—(a) Definitions.

For the purposes of this section—

(1) The term "Department" means the War Department, the Navy Department, the Treasury Department, and the Maritime Commission, respectively.

(2) In the case of the Maritime Commission, the term "Secretary" means the Chairman of such Commission.

(3) The terms "renegotiate" and "renegotiation" include the refixing by the Secretary of the Department of the contract price.

(4) The term "excessive profits" means any amount of a contract or subcontract price which is found as a result of renegotiation to represent excessive profits.

(5) The term "subcontract" means any purchase order or agreement to perform all or any part of the work, or to make or furnish any article, required for the performance of another contract or subcontract. The term "article" includes any material, part, assembly, machinery, equipment, or other personal property.

For the purposes of subsections (d) and (e) of this section, the term "contract" includes a subcontract and the term "contractor" includes a subcontractor.

(b) Provisions required to be inserted in contracts in excess of $100,000.

Subject to subsection (i), the Secretary of each Department is authorized and directed to insert in any contract for an amount in excess of $100,000 hereafter made by such Department—

(1) a provision for the renegotiation of the contract price at a period or periods when, in the judgment of the Secretary, the profits can be determined with reasonable certainty;

(2) a provision for the retention by the United States from amounts otherwise due the contractor, or for the repayment by him to the United States, if paid to him, of any excessive profits not eliminated through reductions in the contract price, or otherwise, as the Secretary may direct;

(3) a provision requiring the contractor to insert in each subcontract for an amount in excess of $100,000 made by him under such contract (i) a provision for the renegotiation by such Secretary and the subcontractor of the contract price of the subcontract at a period or periods when, in the judgment of the Secretary, the profits can be determined with reasonable certainty, (ii) a provision for the retention by the contractor for the United States of the amount of any reduction in the contract price of any subcontract pursuant to its renegotiation hereunder, or for the repayment by the subcontractor to the United States of any excessive profits from such subcontract paid to him and not eliminated through reductions in the contract price or otherwise, as the Secretary may direct, and (iii) a provision for relieving the contractor from any liability to the subcontractor on account of any amount so retained by the contractor or repaid by the subcontractor to the United States, and (iv) in the discretion of the Secretary, a provision requiring any subcontractor to insert in any subcontract made by him under such subcontract, provisions corresponding to those of subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this subsection (b); and

(4) a provision for the retention by the United States from amounts otherwise due the contractor, or for repayment by him to the United States, as the Secretary may direct, of the amount of any reduction in the contract price of any subcontract under such contract, which the contractor is directed, pursuant to clause (3) of this subsection, to withhold from payments otherwise due the subcontractor and actually unpaid at the time the contractor receives such direction.

The provision for the renegotiation of the contract price, in the discretion of the Secretary, (i) may fix the period or periods when or within which renegotiation shall be had; and (ii) if in the opinion of the Secretary the provisions of the contract or subcontract are otherwise adequate to prevent excessive profits, may provide that renegotiation shall apply only to a portion of the contract or subcontract or shall not apply to performance during a specified period or periods and may also provide that the contract price in effect during any such period or periods shall not be subject to renegotiation.

(c) Renegotiation of contract price on determination of excess profits; recovery of excess profits; agreements discharging contractor from liability; limitations; notice of renegotiation; contracts subject to.

(1) Whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of a Department, the profits realized or likely to be realized from any contract with such Department, or from any subcontract thereunder whether or not made by the contractor, may be excessive, the Secretary is authorized and directed to require the contractor or subcontractor to renegotiate the contract price. When the contractor or subcontractor holds two or more contracts or subcontracts the Secretary in his discretion, may renegotiate to eliminate excessive profits on some or all of such contracts and subcontracts as a group without separately renegotiating the contract price of each contract or subcontract.

(2) Upon renegotiation, the Secretary is authorized and directed to eliminate any excessive profits under such contract or subcontract (i) by reductions in the contract price of the contract or subcontract, or by other revision in its terms; or (ii) by withholding, from amounts otherwise due to the contractor or subcontractor, any amount of such excessive profits; or (iii) by directing a contractor to withhold for the account of the United States, from amounts otherwise due to the subcontractor, any amount of such excessive profits under the subcontract; or (iv) by recovery from the contractor or subcontractor, through repayment, credit or suit, of any amount of such excessive profits actually paid to him; or (v) by any combination of these methods, as the Secretary deems desirable. The Secretary may bring actions on behalf of the United States in the appropriate courts of the United States to recover from such contractor or subcontractor, any amount of such excessive profits actually paid to him and not withheld or eliminated by some other method under this subsection. The surety under a contract or subcontract shall not be liable for the repayment of any excessive profits thereon. All money recovered by way of repayment or suit under this subsection shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

(3) In determining the excessiveness of profits realized or likely to be realized from any contract or subcontract, the Secretary shall recognize the properly applicable exclusions and deductions of the character which the contractor or subcontractor is allowed under Chapter 1 and Chapter 2E of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U. S .C. §§ 1 et seq. and 710 et seq.). In determining the amount of any excessive profits to be eliminated hereunder the Secretary shall allow the contractor or subcontractor credit for Federal income and excess profits taxes as provided in section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) Upon renegotiation pursuant to this section, the Secretary may make such final or other agreements with a contractor or subcontractor for the elimination of excessive profits and for the discharge of any liability for excessive profits under this section, as the Secretary deems desirable. Such agreements may cover such past and future period or periods, may apply to such contract or contracts of the contractor or subcontractor, and may contain such terms and conditions, as the Secretary deems advisable. Any such agreement shall be final and conclusive according to its terms; and except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance or a wilful misrepresentation of a material fact, (i) such agreement shall not be reopened as to the matters agreed upon, and shall not be modified by any officer, employee, or agent of the United States; and (ii) such agreement and any determination made in accordance therewith shall not be annulled, modified, set aside, or disregarded in any suit, action, or proceeding.

(5) Any contractor or subcontractor who holds contracts or subcontracts, to which the provisions of this section are applicable, may file with the Secretaries of all the Departments concerned statements of actual costs of production and such other financial statements for any prior fiscal year or years of such contractor or subcontractor, in such form and detail, as the Secretaries shall prescribe by joint regulation. Within one year after the filing of such statements, or within such shorter period as may be prescribed by such joint regulation, the Secretary of a Department may give the contractor or subcontractor written notice, in form and manner to be prescribed in such joint regulation, that the Secretary is of the opinion that the profits realized from some or all of such contracts or subcontracts may be excessive, and fixing a date and place for an initial conference to be held within sixty days thereafter. If such notice is not given and renegotiation commenced by the Secretary within such sixty days the contractor or subcontractor shall not thereafter be required to renegotiate to eliminate excessive profits realized from any such contract or subcontract during such fiscal year or years and any liabilities of the contractor or subcontractor for excessive profits realized during such period shall be thereby discharged.

(6) This subsection (c) shall be applicable to all contracts and subcontracts hereafter made and to all contracts and subcontracts heretofore made, whether or not such contracts or subcontracts contain a renegotiation or recapture clause, unless (i) final payment pursuant to such contract or subcontract was made prior to April 28, 1942, or (ii) the contract or subcontract provides otherwise pursuant to subsection (b) or (i), or is exempted under subsection (i), of this section 403 (section 1191 (i) of this appendix), or (iii) the aggregate sales by the contractor or subcontractor, and by all persons under the control of or controlling or under common control with the contractor or subcontractor, under contracts with the Departments and subcontracts thereunder do not exceed, or in the opinion of the Secretary concerned will not exceed, $100,000 for the fiscal year of such contractor or subcontractor.

No renegotiation of the contract price pursuant to any provision therefor, or otherwise, shall be commenced by the Secretary more than one year after the close of the fiscal year of the contractor or subcontractor within which completion or termination of the contract or subcontract, as determined by the Secretary occurs.

(d) Determination of renegotiation price or excess profits; Bureau of Internal Revenue services as available.

In renegotiating a contract price or determining excessive profits for the purposes of this section, the Secretaries of the respective Departments shall not make any allowance for any salaries, bonuses, or other compensation paid by a contractor to its officers or employees in excess of a reasonable amount, nor shall they make allowance for any excessive reserves set up by the contractor or for any costs incurred by the contractor which are excessive and unreasonable. For the purpose of ascertaining whether such unreasonable compensation has been or is being paid, or whether such excessive reserves have been or are being set up, or whether any excessive and unreasonable costs have been or are being incurred, each such Secretary shall have the same powers with respect to any such contractor that an agency designated by the President to exercise the powers conferred by title XIII of the Second War Powers Act, 1942 (sections 643–643c of this appendix), has with respect to any contractor to whom such title is applicable. In the interest of economy and the avoidance of duplication of inspection and audit, the services of the Bureau of Internal Revenue shall, upon request of each such Secretary and the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, be made available to the extent determined by the Secretary of the Treasury for the purposes of making examinations and determinations with respect to profits under this section.

(e) Financial and production costs statements required, refusal to furnish, false or misleading statements, penalties; Secretary authorized to exercise powers.

In addition to the powers conferred by existing law, the Secretary of each Department shall have the right to demand of any contractor who holds contracts with respect to which the provisions of this section are applicable in an aggregate amount in excess of $100,000, statements of actual costs of production and such other financial statements, at such times and in such form and detail, as such Secretary may require. Any person who willfully fails or refuses to furnish any statement required of him under this subsection, or who knowingly furnishes any such statement containing information which is false or misleading in any material respect, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both. The powers conferred by this subsection shall be exercised in the case of any contractor by the Secretary of the Department holding the largest amount of such contracts with such contractor, or by such Secretary as may be mutually agreed to by the Secretaries concerned.

(f) Delegation of powers by Department head.

Subject to any regulations which the President may prescribe for the protection of the interests of the Government, the authority and discretion herein conferred upon the Secretary of each Department may be delegated in whole or in part by him to such individuals or agencies as he may designate in his Department, or in any other Department with the consent of the Secretary of that Department, and he may authorize such individuals or agencies to make further delegations of such authority and discretion.

(g) Separability of section.

If any provision of this section or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the section and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

(h) Termination of section.

This section shall remain in force during the continuance of the present war and for three years after the termination of the war, but no court proceedings brought under this section shall abate by reason of the termination of the provisions of this section.

(i) Contracts exempted.

(1) The provisions of this section shall not apply to—

(i) any contract by a Department with any other department, bureau, agency, or governmental corporation of the United States or with any Territory, possession, or State or any agency thereof or with any foreign government or any agency thereof; or

(ii) any contract or subcontract for the product of a mine, oil or gas well, or other mineral or natural deposit, or timber, which has not been processed, refined, or treated beyond the first form or state suitable for industrial use; and the Secretaries are authorized by joint regulation, to define, interpret, and apply this exemption.

(2) The Secretary of a Department is authorized, in his discretion, to exempt from some or all of the provisions of this section—

(i) any contract or subcontract to be performed outside of the territorial limits of the continental United States or in Alaska;

(ii) Any contracts or subcontracts under which, in the opinion of the Secretary, the profits can be determined with reasonable certainty when the contract price is established, such as certain classes of agreements for personal services, for the purchase of real property, perishable goods, or commodities the minimum price for sale of which has been fixed by a public regulatory body, of leases and license agreements, and of agreements where the period of performance under such contract or subcontract will not be in excess of thirty days; and

(iii) a portion of any contract or subcontract or performance thereunder during a specified period or periods, if in the opinion of the Secretary, the provisions of the contract are otherwise adequate to prevent excessive profits.

The Secretary may so exempt contracts and subcontracts both individually and by general classes or types.

(j) Persons authorized to prosecute claims against United States.

Nothing in sections 109 and 113 of the Criminal Code (U. S. C., Title 18, §§ 198 and 203) or in section 190 of the Revised Statutes (U. S. C., Title 5, § 99) shall be deemed to prevent any person appointed by the Secretary of a Department for intermittent and temporary employment in such Department, from acting as counsel, agent, or attorney for prosecuting any claim against the United States: Provided, That such person shall not prosecute any claim against the United States (1) which arises from any matter directly connected with which such person is employed, or (2) during the period such person is engaged in intermittent and temporary employment in a Department. (Apr. 28, 1942, ch. 247, title IV, § 403, 56 Stat. 245, as amended Oct. 21, 1942, ch. 619, title VIII, § 801 (a–c), 56 Stat. 982.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Act Oct. 21, 1942, affecting subsecs. (a–c), (f), (i) and (j) of this section, was made effective as of April 28, 1942, by section 801 (d) thereof.
